- Jacksonville Area Legal Aid:
 - Cubans are not being paroled anymore, so they won't be eligible for Refugee Services. There are families being split between paroled status (not all family members are granted paroled status)
 - There are issues with relative petitions
 - There have been influx of medical waiver requests w/no basis for waiver
 - They are getting a high number of Asylum requests from Venezuelans
 - Many are getting denied because people are going to people (no lawyers) who say they can help them fill out their paperwork and are charging them and then filling out the paperwork incorrectly. Then they come to JALA for help but then it's too late
 - Make sure those applying for Asylum do not get their driver license or put their children in school right away because now it is seen as they are "trying to stay and establish residence". They can not do this before the asylum application is in process
 - During the past 3 months they have been doing 6 to 7 consultations for Venezuelans per week.
