1620.0593 Assets Excluded by Federal Law (TCA)

Each program has certain assets excluded by federal law. These exclusions are discussed in this section.

The eligibility specialist must verify or document the amount of the benefit received from the following sources, since they are potential assets:

1. SSI benefits or SSI lump sum payments.
2. Assistance from a vocational rehabilitation agency within certain limitations.
3. Disaster assistance payments (P.L. 100-707). This exclusion applies to federal disaster assistance and comparable state or local assistance.
4. Emergency payments made by another agency prior to the date direct assistance is received.
5. Any grant, loan, gift or scholarship received by the individual. Effective 7/1/93, this includes financial assistance provided under programs in Title IV of the Higher Education Act and under Bureau of Indian Affairs student assistance programs. Effective 7/1/93, student financial assistance for attendance costs under the Carl D. Perkins Vocational and Applied Technology Education Act is also excluded. Attendance costs include: tuition and fees (as required by the institution of all students in the same course of study); and books, supplies, transportation, dependent care and miscellaneous personal expenses (as included in the assistance grant) for those attending on at least a half-time basis, as defined by the institution. Living expenses are not allowed as attendance costs unless the assistance grant includes funds for this purpose as part of miscellaneous personal expenses.

Funds derived from the following sources are not considered available income or assets, and it is not required that the source be verified or documented:

1. Payments to a natural child of a Vietnam veteran born with spina bifida, except spina bifida occulta, as a result of the exposure of one or both parents to Agent Orange (P.L. 104-204).
2. Payments to a natural child of a woman Vietnam veteran born with one or more birth defects resulting in permanent physical or mental disability (P.L. 106-419).
3. The employment related expense reimbursement received by a participant in an Employment and Training Program.

Technical changes and changes in non-substantive information may be excluded from this summary.
