

Handout 2-1B: Family Maps/Connection Diagrams

Directions for Father:

Review the information below. As you participate in the activity provide the information only as it is solicited. If questions are asked that are not included in this information, feel free to respond with what seems appropriate.

Paul Mason

- You were the youngest of 4 children
- Your father is in prison for rape of a child and you have no contact with him
- Your parents divorced shortly after your father's conviction
- You are very close with your mother, Charlotte and also like her new husband Mike
- You are very close to your brothers Bobby & Carl and go out with them several times a week
- You are a member of the Elks Club
- Your sister Carol lives in Ohio and you only see her a couple of times a year
- You don't have close friends other than your brothers
- You see your relationship with Mary as "fine"
- You worry about Mary lately because she doesn't seem herself and seems sad a lot
- You care about your children but don't spend much time with them
- You like your job okay and have some friends there , but you don't see them outside of work
- You have no religious or other organization affiliation
- You are awaiting a court hearing for a DUI

Handout 2-1B

Family Maps/Connections Diagrams

Directions for Mother:

Review the information below. As you participate in the activity provide the information only as it is solicited. If questions are asked that are not included in this information, feel free to respond with what seems appropriate.

Mary Mason

- You see your relationship with Paul as very rocky
- You love your children but become frustrated with caring for them
- You are having a hard time providing care for your son John because he misbehaves a lot and is “hardheaded”
- You are concerned that something is wrong with Bobby
- You are ambivalent about your current pregnancy
- You get your prenatal care at the health department, but haven’t had a checkup since the one at which they confirmed your pregnancy.
- You were the 2nd of 3 children
- You lived with your grandmother from age 2 until age 12 when your grandmother died.
- At age 12 you returned to live with your mother, Melinda.
- You are not very close with your mother, but she does help you out sometimes.
- Your sister Kristin lives close to your mother, but you are not close & seldom see her
- Your sister Donna lives in Oregon and you only see her every few years
- You are not close with Paul’s family, and particularly dislike his brother Bobby
- Your mother doesn’t like Paul
- You have one close friend who you see occasionally
- You have no religious or other organizational affiliation